

20th Biennial Mogollon Archaeology Conference

Call for Papers

New Mexico State University will host the 20th Biennial Mogollon Archaeology Conference on October 11-13, 2018 in Las Cruces, New Mexico. The conference will be sponsored by the NMSU Anthropology Department and Anthropology GSO and be held at the Corbett Center Auditorium on the NMSU Campus.

The Conference website is: <http://www.lonjul.net/mog2018/>

Papers, presentations, or special sessions are invited that relate to the archaeology of the Mogollon region in the broadest sense including Mimbres, Jornada Mogollon, Northern Chihuahua, and the Mogollon Rim areas. Relevant papers relating to protohistoric and historic populations in the region are also welcome. Selected papers will be edited and published after the conference.

Please submit your abstract before August 1, 2018 to the conference chair Dr. Lonnie C. Ludeman by e-mail: lludeman@zianet.com. Abstracts will be reviewed by the Conference Program Committee and Notifications of acceptance will be sent on or before August 8, 2018.

Anyone interested in organizing a relevant Special Session should prepare a proposal including session title, a list of participants, titles, and abstracts and submit it by August 1, 2018 to lludeman@zianet.com for review and possible inclusion in the program.